Numb. 5339

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 18. to Tuesday June 21. 1715.

St. James's, June 20.

AN humble Addreſs of the Right Honourable the the Lord Blany, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Monaghan, the High Sheriff, Deputy-Governours, Cuſtos-Rotulorum, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the ſaid County; having been tranſmitted from Ireland to the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, was, in his Lordſhip's Abſence, preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable James Stanhope, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Stockholm, May 21. O. S. The Hereditary Prince of Heſſe-Caſſel has put off his Journey to view the Avenues along this Coaſt, till the 25th of this Month; Count Ferſen, one of the Senators having engaged his Highneſs to be preſent at the Marriage of his Son, which is to be Solemnized at Court on the 24th. with the Counteſs Wachtmeiſter, who is one of the Queen Grandmother's Maids of Honour, and a conſiderable Fortune. We have not yet had any Account of Admiral Lillie ſince he put to Sea: 'Tis reported that he is ordered to Carlſcrona, to joyn what Ships can be fitted out there. The King having lately ſent an Order hither for advancing the Price of the current Copper-Plates from 6 to 9 Dollars, 'twas thought the Senate would have repreſented the ill Conſequences thereof to his Majeſty, and have received his further Pleaſure thereupon. But his Majeſty having ſo often expreſly enjoyned them never to preſume any more to ſuſpend the Execution of what he thinks fit to direct, it was Yeſterday reſolved finally that his Majeſty's ſaid Order ſhall be publiſhed in all the Churches of this City to Morrow; and a printed Proclamation to the ſame Purpoſe, is ſent to Day to all the Provinces: But the Minting of the ſmall Copper-Pieces, which the King has alſo commanded ſhall be made to paſs for whole and half Rixdollars, is however ſuſpended till further Order. The Attorney-General has not yet begun the intended Proſecution againſt the Senators.

Stralſund, June 7. O. S. The King of Sweden continues to take all manner of Precaurions in order to put his Place into a good Poſture of Defence, and the Works without the Town advance apace. Admiral Henck is ſaid to be gone to make certain Diſpoſitions for the Defence of the Iſle of Rugen, where a Block-houſe is building to guard the Entrance into this Port called the new Deep, where 4 or 5 Frigates ride at Anchor on the ſame Deſign. In the Night between the 4th and 5th Inſtant, 50 Pruſſian Horſe having paſſed the Pene attacked 30 Swediſh Dragoons who had their Poſt near Demin; theſe expecting nothing leſs than ſuch a Viſit at that time of Night, had placed themſelves about a Fire, when they received a Volley of Shot from the Pruſſians; which ſudden Alarm both ſurprizing the Men and frighting their Horſes (who broke looſe and run away) left the Swedes no other Means of ſaving themſelves than by Flight; however, ſome few remained wounded on the Spot, and 3 or 4 were carried off Priſoners. His Swediſh Majeſty went from hence Yeſterday immediately after Dinner, and is not yet returned, which makes it conjectured that he has taken a Turn to Demin, and that he may have formed ſome Deſign to revenge himſelf on the Pruſſians.

Copenhagen, June 18. The Britiſh Fleet under the Command of Sir John Norris, together with the Dutch Squadron, and all the Merchant Ships under their joint Convoy, having paſſed the Grounds of Copenhagen with a good Wind, came to Anchor in the Kiogerbocht, where on the 14th a Council was held on board the Britiſh Admiral's Ship the Cumberland, to concert meaſures for proceeding further up into the Baltick, and for convoying the Trade into their ſeveral Ports. The 17th at five in the Morning the Wind being fair, the two Fleets ſet ſail together, and it continuing to blow a freſh Gale, 'tis thought they are got far up into this Sea.

Hambourg, June 25. The King of Pruſſia has made a Detachment from his Army of 12 Squadrons and two Batta-